

U3AWynyardUniversity of the Third Age

Just what the doctor ordered ...

Keep your brain and body active, learn new skills, reinvigorate old interests and develop fresh social networks with U3A Wynyard

Our new term of courses commences in September and you can start enrolling now. For full details, visit our website at wynyard.u3anet.org.au or just google "wynyard u3a". Details will also be found in our latest newsletter which can be picked up from Wynyard and Burnie libraries and at Wynyard Council Chambers. And we are on facebook.

Or come to see us ... If you prefer the personal touch, come to our new office at ArtsCape, 45 Jackson Street at one of these times:

Friday August 5, 12, 19, 26 10:00 am - 1:00 pm

Attend our grand launch ... Meet some of our tutors, enjoy a hot drink and a nibble, and sign up for whatever interests you at the Uniting Church Hall, Dodgin Street on Thursday September 1 at 2:00 - 3:30 pm

What is U3A? U3A is a unique and exciting organisation which brings older people together to learn, not for qualifications, but for its own reward: the sheer joy of discovery (with no exams or entrance requirements). Classes are informal and everyone contributes just as much as they wish.

U3A Wynyard started in 2015 and is one of eleven such groups in Tasmania, over 100 in Australia, and many thousands around the world.

U3A: Cultivating Community, Curiosity and Learning